PetLift warrants to original buyer its products to be made of the finest quality materials free from defects in material or workmanship under normal use and to perform the service for which they were intended in a thoroughly reliable and efficient manner, when properly installed, maintained and cared for. Labor coverage may not be included in replacement or installation of parts or components. PetLift customer service and/or sales will determine the technical level of service needed and approve labor coverage on a case by case basis. This warranty covers defects in materials and workmanship provided such product is used for the normal purpose for which intended, and damage is not the result of abuse, misuse or neglect. We are not responsible for charges for repairs or other work without prior written authorization by PetLift. We reserve the right to repair or replace defective parts at our sole discretion. This warranty does not include damage resulting from accident and expressly excludes normal wearing of parts or defect caused by transportation, accident, fire, flood, alteration or negligence. PetLift shall not be liable for any direct or indirect, incidental, exemplary, or consequential damages or delay, including damages for loss of income or loss of use.
